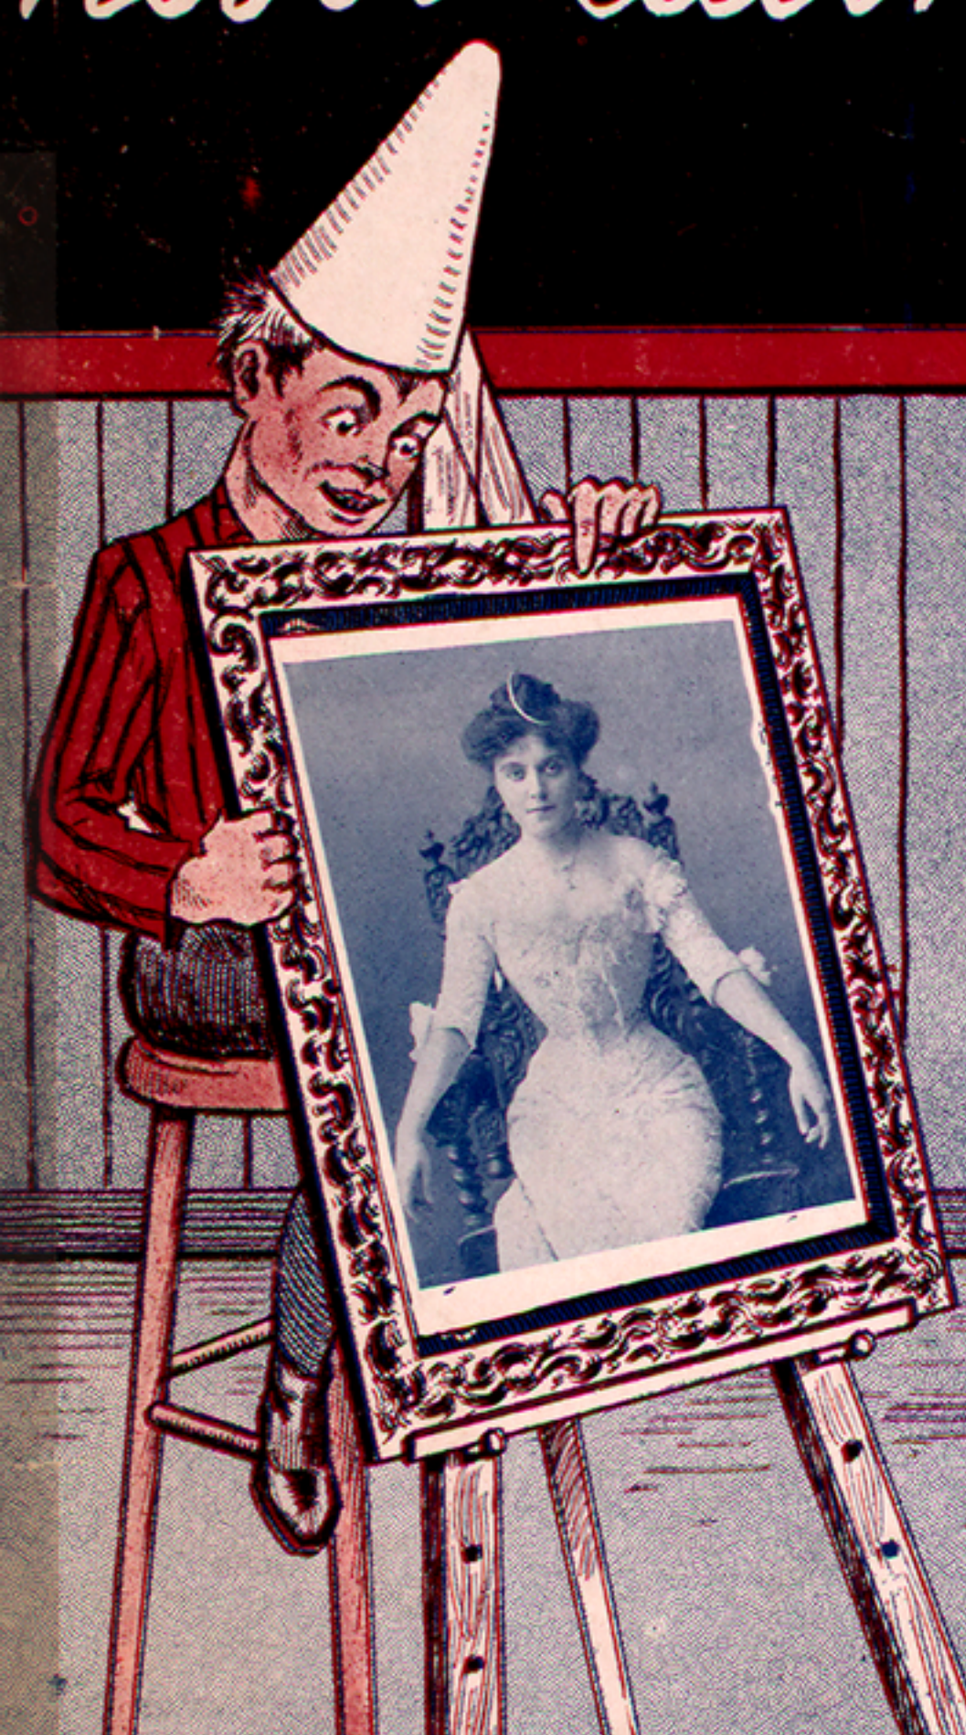
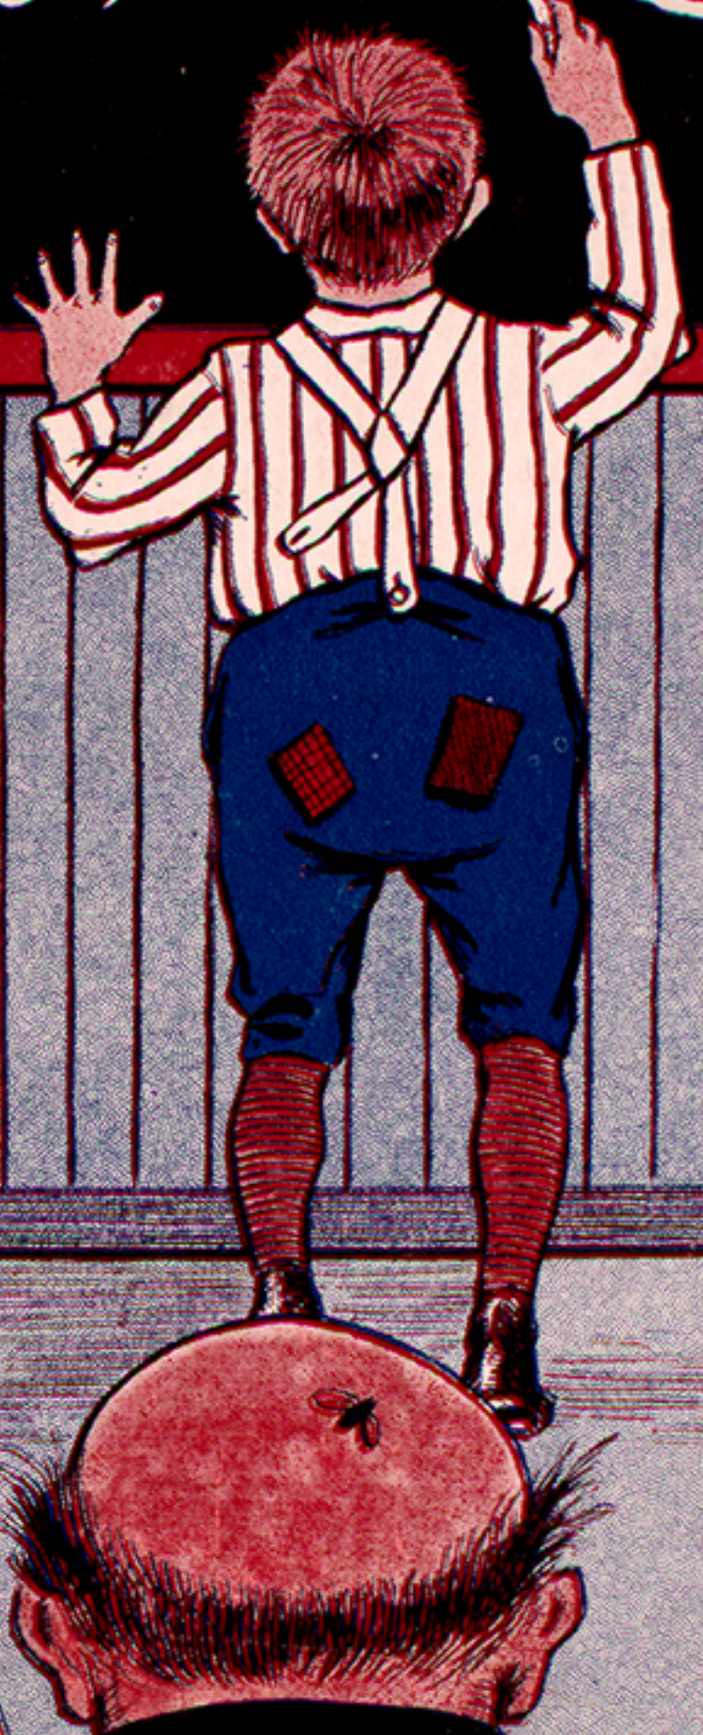
Introduced by JEANETTE LOWRIE
"WIZARD-OF-OZ-Co., New York City.

There's a lot of things you never learn at school

BY { ED. GARDENIER
EDWIN S. BRILL





DOTY & BRILL
43 WEST 28TH STREET.
NEW YORK

There's a lot of things you never learn at school.

by { ED. GARDENIER.
EDWIN S. BRILL.

Allegretto.

Moderato.

1. I con - fess when I left col - lege with a bunch of high class knowledge, My cran - i - um was not it's nor - mal size, All the
2. Tom-my's teach - er told the sto - ry of George Wash-ing-tons young glo - ry, Who chopped the tree and cried: "Oh lie I can't," Tom
3. Al- though Doc-tors are pro - lif - ic with their knowledge sci - en - tif - ic, A vis - it to our house they sel - dom take, For
4. Our new cot-tage they've been paint-ing and one night I felt like faint-ing, When I gazed up - on my sun - day pearl - grey pants On those

Copyright MCMII, by Doty & Brill; 43 W. 28th St; N.Y.
English Copyright secured.
B. Feldman & Co; London, Eng.

high de - grees I'd won them all the tough - est prob - lems done them, I thought George was a dan - dy Next day an ax was hand - y, He dear - est old grand moth - er has a cure some how or oth - er, For trous - ers bright and mel - low spots of paint bright red and yel - low, It sim - ply thought the earth would be my prize; But I took it and chopped down the Rub - ber plant; Now who eve - ry kind of ail - ment pain or ache; Now our real - ly near - ly put me in a trance; Till I find my ed - u - ca - tion did - n't seem to jar the na - tion, I did this?" yelled his dad - dy "It was I" re - plied the lad - die, "Like lit - tle ba - by hol - lered when a writ - ing pen it swal - lowed, It read in next day's pap - er a small "ad" that seem'd the ca - per, The find no streets named af - ter me to - day, I meet Georg - es "Pop" em - brace your truth - ful lad", Cross his filled us with six dif - frent kinds of fright, But Grand - way to take out paint stains with - out doubt, Send a folks with - out much learn - ing in a way be - yond dis - cern - ing, They're knee Tom's pa - pa pressd him with a base - ball bat ca - ressed him, "Boy's ma just took a bot - tle poured some black ink down it's throt - tle, It dime and learn the plan Sir well I did and got this an - swer, Just teach - ing me new wrink - les eve - ry day.

Pops have changed since Georg - ies time" said Dad.
reachd the pen and made the ba - by write.
take a scis - sors cut the paint stains out.

There's a lot of things &c. = 4.

Chorus.

There's a lot of things you nev - er learn at school, There's a lot of things that nev - er go by rule; There's an awful lot of knowledge that you nev - er get at col - lege, There's a lot of things you nev - er learn at school.

There's a lot of things &c. = 4.

TELLER, SONS & DORNER NEW-YORK.